King's Windsor Cement for Plastering Walls and Ceilings; 300 per cent more tensile strength; 200 per cent harder than lime and hair plaster. Houses can be occupied in from four to six weeks earlier than those finished in the old method.
Does not chip, pit or crack. Indorsed and used by the best architects, builders and plasterers. 250 barrels were used in the Shoreham. The extension of Vice President Morton's flouse was plastered with it; also the theater portion of Lincom Music hall. About 500 barrels were used on the extension of the Arlington hotel. It makes twice as strong a job as the old fashioned plastering and only costs five cents a yard more.

A caucus of republican Senators was held this morning to consider the silver situation. The committee, which met the committee of the House republicans and agreed to the form of a silver bill, reported the result of their work, whereupon a discussion ensued that was not completed when the hour for the opening of the Senate arrived.

A recess was then taken until 3 o'clock. It is said that there was a great variety of views terms of the agreement with the Sioux Indians firmation of Dakota for the sale of a portion of their reservation (and appropriating $1,800,000 for family, to your knowledge?" the purpose) was reported and passed.

The Senate bill appropriating $140,000 for a

LIEUT. LEMLEY ALLOWED TO GO ABROAD. Senate joint resolution to authorize Lieut. Henry R. Lemley, U.S.A., to accept a position under the government of Colombia (instructor of the national military school at Bogota) was containing $5,000, making $25,000 in all, also reported and passed.

The Senate then proceeded to the calendar and passed several bills of little importance. CAPT. REID'S SWORD.

The Senate joint resolution accepting the donation of the battle sword of the late Capt. Samuel Chester Reid, tendered as a gift by his son, Samuel C. Reid, and providing for the presentation to him by Congress of a gold medal, having been taken up. Mr. Voorhees, who had reported it from the library committee, read from manuscript what he called income while away. It was developed that when Mr. Croker hought his house he called when Mr. Croker hought his house he called the contraction. "The story of the sword tendered for our acceptance. The story was that of the battle of Fayal, in which the American privateer Gen. Armstrong, commanded by Capt. Reid, resisted and repulsed with great slaughter the attacks from English men-of-war; a battle to which Gen. Jackson said he was indebted for the delay which enabled him to defend New Orleans. Mr. Sherman opposed the joint resolution, although he said it seemed ungracious to do so. It was a gallant act on the part of Capt. Reid, but after all it was in defense of his own vessela privateer-that had gone out, like other pri-should be deposited in the National Museum or in the Navy Department; that of Messrs. Vest. Dawes and Hale was that if a medal was struck at all it should be given to the family, and that of Messrs. Plamb and Platt was that the whole thing would be setting a precedent which would have to be followed in a multitude of cases. The latter objected particularly to the preamble, which spoke of Capt. Reed's transaction as "unparalleled," and spoke of it as a reflection on all the heroic men in American history. Mr. Evarts and Mr. Voorhees consented to modify the resolution so that the medal should NO QUORUM VOTING.

Finally a standing vote was taken on the passage of the joint resolution and, as it showed a majority against it—12 to 26—(no quorum voting) Mr. Voorhees asked that the joint resolution might lie over, retaining its place on the the Secretary of State of the United States, calendar, and that was agreed to. Only Two Nominations Today.

The President today sent to the Senate the following nominations: Jeremiah C, Donahower, United States marshal for the district of Minnesota. William T. Webster, postmaster, Tallahassee.

By appointment of the Speaker Mr. Burrow (Mich.) acted as Speaker pro tem. today. On motion of Mr. Lee (Va.) a bill was passed appropriating $7,000 to construct a road from that we have no protection of city or state and On motion of Mr. Lee (Va.) a bill was passed cemetery near that place.

Mr. Allen (Miss.), rising to a question of personal privilege, read an extract from a special men who represent the wishes and are emto a Philadelphia paper stating that in his re- powered to act. cent speech he had uttered a vulgar tirade against Senator Quay and had characterized him as a thief, and had closed his speech with an attack upon the piety of Postmaster General The Chicago Strikers and Their Eme Wanamaker, He also read the resolutions of the republican state committee of Pennsylvania denounc-ing the "indecent conduct" of Messrs. Allen and Spinola in attacking Senator Quay. MR. ALLEN DENIED that he had ever called Senator Quay a thief.

He "denied the allegation and defied the allegator." It had never been his purpose to begin an attack on Senator Quay, and he had never done so in the heat of the debate, and in reply to the gentleman from Illinois (Mr. Cannon), who had arrainged the democratic party because it said that the democratic party had never elected them to the United States Senate or gentleman from Illinois brought up the southern treasurers his head was so exposed that he (Mr. Allen) just hit it without thinking. TAMMANY SCORCHED.

Proof of the Corruption of Grant and Croker.

New York. April 26.—The senate committee on cities, or the Fassett investigating committee, held a sensational session in the court house today. Tammany leaders were scorched unmercifully, and Richard Croker, Mayor Grant and other leaders of the Tammany organiza-tion were handled without gloves by Lawyer Ivins, counsel to the committee and Chairman Fassett. All the local political celebrities were present except the personages who were under investigation.

Patrick H. McCann, whose sister is Richard Croker's wife, was the first witness. "Did Mr. Croker ever come to your store with a sum of money and say that it had been raised for the purpose of getting Grant into that office?" asked Mr. Ivins.

At this question the witness hesitated, but finally answered as follows: "Yes, Croker came to my store and showed me $180,000, which I counted, He said that of the amount Mr. Grant had subscribed $80,000 as a fund to be public building at Tampa, Fla., was reported and placed on the calendar.

The Senate biil to carry out (in part) the firmation.

Grant had subscribed $80,000 as a fund to be paid for the continuation of himself (Grant) as considered to the continuation of himself (Grant) as a fund to be paid for the continuation of himself (Grant) as a fund to be paid for the continuation of himself (Grant) as a fund to be paid for the continuation of himself (Grant) as a fund to be paid for the continuation of himself (Grant) as a fund to be paid for the continuation of himself (Grant) as a fund to be paid for the continuation of himself (Grant) as a fund to be paid for the continuation of himself (Grant) as a fund to be paid for the continuation of himself (Grant) as a fund to be paid for the continuation of himself (Grant) as a fund to be paid for the continuation of himself (Grant) as a fund to be paid for the continuation of himself (Grant) as a fund to be paid for the continuation of himself (Grant) as a fund to be paid for the continuation of himself (Grant) as a fund to be paid for the continuation of himself (Grant) as a fund to be paid for the continuation of himself (Grant) as a fund to be paid for the continuation of himself (Grant) as a fund to be paid for the continuation of himself (Grant) as a fund to be paid for the continuation of himself (Grant) as a fund to be paid for the continuation of himself (Grant) and the continu

He finally answered "yes."
He answered in substance that Mrs. Croker had told him that while sheriff Mr. Grant had called at their house frequently. On five dif-ferent occasions he had handed Flossie, the sixyear-old daughter of Mr. Croker, an envelope Witness also testified that Leicester Holme, Mayor Grant's private secretary, had visited Mrs. Croker as a representative of Mayor Grant several times since Mr. Croker went to Europe, Mr. Hoime offered Mrs. Croker her expenses and something more if she would go to Germany. She refused.

It was also elicited from the witness that Dr.

when Mr. Croker bought his house he only paid $1,500 on account. Since that he has paid a large portion of the balance.

A Petition to Secretary Blaine for Federal Protection to Non-Union Men. carpenters from other states was held last night to take steps to secure protection against intimidation from the strikers. They were advised that being from other states they could call on the United States for protection. The following memorial was drawn and mailed to CHICAGO, ILL., April 25.-To the Honorable

Washington: We, your petitioners, of the city of Chicago, being bona fide citizens of the United States. now by intimidations, threats and actual violence, being prevented from following our avocations to the great injury of ourselves and families, humbly petition the government of the United States for protection in the exercise of our constitutional rights, now denied by a mob of riotous outlaws, who defy the authorities and revented from the state of the constitution of the constitution the authorities and who maintain a reign of terror over those who differ with them on ques-tions of trades unions.

We also state that the above state of affairs thorities here; hence we petition your honor that protection sufficient be afforded us so that we may in peace and safety continue our lawfu avocations. Done for and by the committee of free trades
